Amsterdam Light Festival

During this annual Light Festival, both Amsterdam's residents and its visitors are treated to a spectacular showcase of light art, offering talented emerging artists the perfect platform.

This year's edition, running from 27 November 2025 until 18 January 2026, centres around the powerful concept of "legacy." Artists explore thought-provoking questions such as "How do we want to be remembered?", "How do we see our future?", and "What will we leave behind for the next generations?"

The light artworks are placed in public spaces throughout the city centre making them accessible through walking, biking, or boat routes.
